

Susan Rotwein

Susan Rotwein calls Trinidad her home. She has been an active member of her community for decades, from the Trinidad Fish Feed, to the Blessing of the Fleet and City government. She has served as Mayor, City Councilman, Planning Commission Chair, and Planning Commissioner. Her tenure of service to the City is highlighted by protection of resources. She worked to establish a Septic Maintenance District in the City of Trinidad, protecting water, beaches and Trinidad Bay.

Susan began her career as a Commercial Fisherman while still in college studying to be a Nurse. Graduating Humboldt State University with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and a Bachelor of Arts in Ethnic Studies. She began work in the American Indian Communities of Humboldt and Del Norte Counties, developing Public Health Programs with an overarching focus on primary and secondary prevention of Type 2 Diabetes.

At the same time, she continued her path in Commercial Fishing with her husband Zach. Today, together they own and operate Cap'n Zach's Crab House a small Seafood business. Her Husband and son Sam fish their vessel the Miss Phyllis out of Trinidad, CA